

On behalf of my Deaf son, I am encouraging interoperability and compatibility across Relay providers. This will allow access equal to communication access achieved by two hearing persons, and is a necessary step in allowing Deaf and hard-of-hearing persons independence.